PROTECTED WHEN COMPLETED

AME

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

CPL

Alberta Aviation Council (AAC) Scholarship Applications open annually on December 1st. Applications must be made using the online form and reach our office no later than midnight March 28th. Scholarships awards will be awarded at the AAC Spring Conference.

PPL

Category of Award:

	RPAS Flight Ins	tructors
SUBMISSION REQUIREMENT 1. Contact information	S - Please provide the following:	:
First Name	Surname	Phone Number
Address	City	Prov
Postal Code	Email Address
3. Aviation Certificates (Pilots of current avia4. Logbook (Pilots only) a.) The scholarship targe	ts	in pursuit of
, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,	type of students/applican
b.) The applicants must b	oe Albertan citizens or permaner	nt residents and are studying at:
type of flight s	chool/specific school
Scholarship amount $ pa	aid directly to
amount		ight school/specific school

PROTECTED WHEN COMPLETED

Submission deadline

a.)	Please submit one email containing one pdf with all required documents as outlined below by
	to to date email
	Selection committee and timeline
b.)	The selection committee will be composed of Alberta Aviation Council Board of Directors and Associate Board members. Successful applicants will be notified via email
	Your application will be based on the answers in the following categories:
-	1. Clearly outline your career objectives, and what you have done to make progress towards these goals
-	2. Share your experiences dealing with challenges and setbacks, demonstrating how you have exhibited resilience and adaptability in overcoming adversities in various facets of your life
-	3. Detail your engagement in extracurricular activities, and community involvement in and out of the aviation industry
-	4. Include any other information you would like the selection committee to keep in mind wher considering your application. Letters of recommendation are encouraged, but not required.